

AATT and JetBlue support Yale University Bound Student

The Airports Authority of Trinidad and Tobago (the Authority) is pleased to support JetBlue in its sponsorship of Trinidadian student and theatre enthusiast, Mr. Marcus Waldron to attend Yale University in the United States. Marcus, a passionate theatre director has been accepted as a Special Research Fellow affiliated with the Yale School of Directing in New Haven, Connecticut.

Marcus departed on JetBlue's flight service from Port of Spain to New York's John F. Kennedy Airport, on the 18th of August 2016. Before his departure, Paul Parawan, General Manager JetBlue, the Authority's Deputy General Manager Estate Planning and Business Development, Mrs. Adrienne Ayers – Allen and the Authority's General Manager Ag. Mr. Oswald Bruce, met with Mr. Waldron in the VIP Lounge at the Piarco International Airport to give gifts and encouragement to the Yale bound student.

According to Mr. Paul Parawan, it is important that the positives and achievements of our young people in the nation of Trinidad and Tobago be highlighted, supported and celebrated.

The Authority supports JetBlue's mission "to inspire humanity – both in the air and on the ground". JetBlue is committed to giving back in meaningful ways in the communities they serve and to inspire others to do the same. Similarly, the Authority is committed to demonstrating good corporate social responsibility and making a positive influence on the lives of the youth of our nation. The Authority joins with JetBlue in wishing Mr. Waldron all the best in his academic endeavours.

About JetBlue

JetBlue is New York's Hometown Airline®, and a leading carrier in Boston, Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood, Los Angeles (Long Beach), Orlando, and San Juan. JetBlue carries more than 35 million customers a year to 96 cities in the U.S., Caribbean, and Latin America with an average of 925 daily flights. For more information please visit jetblue.com.

