MEDIA RELEASE

Airports Authority of Trinidad and Tobago (“the Authority”) wishes to reassure the public that the Authority continues to maintain high levels of safety and security at the Piarco and ANR Robinson International Airports.

The Authority wishes to inform that the recent comments made to the media by the Airport’s branch board of the Estate Police Association were not sanctioned by the Association’s Executive and do not reflect the latter’s position.

Security operations at the airport occur in a highly regulated environment and our security procedures continue to adhere to strict international civil aviation security standards. The Airports utilise an integrated multi-agency robust operation and adopts a holistic approach by partnering with the Ministry of National Security, the Trinidad and Tobago Civil Aviation Authority and other International Agencies such as the International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO) and the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

In addition, our airport operations are regularly audited by these and other agencies to ensure adherence to all international standards and recommended practices. Audit recommendations are continuously incorporated into security procedures.

The Authority wishes to reassure the public that Security is a top priority of the Authority and we are committed to working with all stakeholders to maintain the highest levels of safety and security at the Piarco and ANR Robinson International Airports.
